Dear Frank:

I trust, in retrospect, that you view your visit as rewarding. We have had many well received speakers over the past years, but yours was the warmest reception. The membership respected you, what you are doing, and what you had to say. They needed to hear it.

Thank you again for coming. I trust we may have the occasion to meet again more leisurely. Norma and I enjoyed the brief moments we had and want you to know that there is always an open door for you in Petersburg.

Sincerely,

John R. Tietjen, M.D.
